To whom it may concern

I have known both Shana and Angela as long as they have been in the Gulf, I had the privilege of working with both of them in different capacities with in the Paris Gallery Group and Al Fahim Enterprises as well as Business Concepts / projects outside of the luxury retail realm.

Both ladies are blessed with a talent and a passion for business and more specifically – marketing. Their professional interaction with people ranging from staff on the shop floor, right up to Executive Directors of international firms, had earned them profound respect across the board.

Their dedication to the task at hand is admirable. Their attitude and approach to business is firm, confident, energetic and professional at all times. They have a subtle way of inspiring all they come into contact with.

A more dynamic team than these ladies would be difficult to find.
