"In a place like Dubai, where speed is so often crucial to the success of projects, dealing with Shana and Angie takes a lot of headache away!!

They are both very quick to react, and to be anticipative of our needs, taking the necessary initiative to speed up the process, especially when dealing with outside suppliers - and often being at the mercy of outside suppliers' way of working.

We have worked with the Sassy ladies on a number of occasions, and while they definitely make our lives easier, our professional relationship also contributes to our clients' long term trust and satisfaction of dealing with a professional, seamless team"
